Harold Workman
Agriculture
Leadership Award

Nomination Form Due
By October 15, 2013
I. GENERAL INFORMATION

The Harold Workman Leadership Award committee is soliciting nominations for an individual with distinguished service in the field of agriculture.

This award is established as a tribute to the men and women who have given unselfishly of their time and efforts in Service to Kentucky’s Agriculture Industry.

This service must be beyond the ordinary duties and normal responsibilities of an agricultural leader. It must be performed as a result of an unselfish desire to advance the well-being of Kentucky’s farm people - the scope of service will have a bearing on determination of the award recipient.

II. SELECTION GUIDELINES

1. A nominee for The Harold Workman Leadership Award must have demonstrated sincere interest in Kentucky’s Agricultural Industry through leadership and/or participation in civic, agricultural, church or fraternal organizations or through an outstanding individual contribution to Kentucky Agriculture in general.

2. The award may be made to any man or woman (including paid professional workers).

III. PROGRAM AWARDS

The award winner will be at the discretion of the selection committee and will receive recognition and plaque to be presented at the Farm City Luncheon held during the North American International Livestock Exposition (NAILE). The award winners name will be engraved on a plaque and attached to the wall of the Harold Workman North Wing Lobby of the Kentucky Exposition Center.
IMPORTANT

The nomination information submitted will be the sole basis for judging and has been sectioned for easy tabulation of information. Answer ALL questions fully, be specific and segregate information according to the questions asked.
